

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" or "announcements" or "advertisements" over his counter free gifts of dry goods or hardware. A newspaper is a paying business concern. Its column are its stock in trade, and advertising is its profit. It makes no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Combined Costs

upon this Ledger for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Sales, excusives, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for notices of meetings, etc., etc., to respect, &c., The LEDGER will charge twenty-five cents a line, and thereafter five cents a line, and hereafter this will be the unchangeable rule. This however,

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Advocacy of Disputes.

Manifestations are unpleasant. The cost for Bounding Leads in THIS LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion. A customer orders a few lines local inserted in the paper, and it is his right to take the paper home and say to his bookskeeper, "But he forced me to pay for this paper for two months—25 times—the bill is now $2.50." That is a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to have a paper inserted in the paper, notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a friendly settlement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be received at least 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to let us know.

William A. Sellman is his name.

Telling of his trials; a card.

And wrath is meted to the Scribe.

In double-shotted visits.

He ought to have taken a club.

He tells us what a saint he's been.

And death, till he's dead, here.

Did give himself away.

His own testimony convicted him.

Now, while his words are not akin.

To those of milk and honey,

He got his name right plump in print.

Without a cent of money.

And that was all he wanted.

Harry Graham, aged about 14, residing in the Sixth Ward, met with a painful accident at W. B. Mathews & Co.'s Sawmills yesterday afternoon. He was working about the lath saw shop, and the belt slipping off he reached across the saw to replace it. In so doing the cut his arm near the wrist, making an ugly and painful though not a dangerous wound. Dr. A. Reed and Dr. Yazzell dressed the injury.

SOLD HIS PIKE!

COL. W. W. BALDWIN'S TRADE WITH FAYETTE COUNTY.

This Fayette Fiscal Court has bought nearly all the pikes in that county for the purpose of making them free.

For some time the Court has been negotiating with Colonel W. W. Baldwin of this city for the purchase of the eight miles of the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike lying in Fayette county for the purpose of making it a free pike.

The price named by Colonel Baldwin was $35,000 for the eight miles.

Colonel Baldwin went to Lexington Tuesday afternoon to confer with the Court, and yesterday afternoon the officers of that Court having been hindered in the discharge of their duties.

The Court is to pay $25,000 cash when the legislation necessary to make the transfer is obtained.

Waited—Horses.

Mr. Joe Kindig of York, Pa., will be at Deep Dalton & Bro.'s Stable on Tuesdays April 30th, and will pay the highest cash prices for good sound drivers, road and coach horses from 4 to 8 years old, well broken and in good flesh. Bring in your horses and turn them into cash.

Flemingsburg's Courthouse now looks like a new one, having been repainted.

M'NAMARA—O'DONNELL.

A BEAUTIFUL AND IMPRESSIVE EARLY MORNING MARRIAGE AT ST. PATRICK'S.

The glory hour of early morning with the new day warmed into awakening blessings for those who plighted their troth at 5 a.m. was never brighter, sweeter for the worship at Hymen's altar than today.

Those who filled St. Patrick's Church at the hour mentioned above came to bear witness to the marriage of Miss Anna Agnes O'Donnell of this city to Mr. Charles F. McNamara of Flemingsburg and saw their union of two young hearts, strong in love, and expectant happiness, all vouchsafed to them by the sterling qualities of bride and groom.

The bride looked remarkably beautiful attired in a tailor-made brown cloth traveling gown, with hat to match.

Miss Mary O'Mara, the maid of honor, excited much admiration, gowned in a corresponding suit to the bride.

Mr. Thomas McHugh of Flemingsburg acted as best man.

Rev. Father Ennis, Pastor of the Church, performed the ceremony which was followed by the nuptial mass.

The groom, who was reared in this city, embarked in the tailoring business at Flemingsburg several years ago and the enterprise was successful from the start.

The bride, a winsome young lady, is the youngest daughter of Mrs. John O'Donnell of Bridge street.

A delightful breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, after which Mr. and Mrs. McNamara left for the West on the conventional bridal tour.

The numerous and costly presents received by the happy couple fully attested their popularity.

CAKE VS. M'GARVEY

THE FORMER'S REPLY TO THE LATTER'S CRITICISM.

IS THE BIBLE THE INSPIRED, INERRANT AND INFALLIBLE WORD OF GOD?

(By request of the author, and of many others, THE LEDGER reprints from The Evening Bulletin the reply of Rev. E. B. Cake to the criticisms of Rev. J. W. McGarvey on the former's "Half Hour Talks on the Bible," printed originally in THE LEDGER.—ED.)

NUMEROUS II.

Another master, Professor, who lies out among the rest, is the teacher of the "Bible and the Word of God" because found in our Bible, is this: "The glory of the great number of writings, belonging to the two classes, in which the authorship is known, and those in which the authorship is unknown—what sort of a judgment was it that finally determined that one writing should go into the Old or New Testament canon; and that certain others should be excluded from the catalogue of the Canonical?"

Again, what sort of a judgment was it that finally determined the character of the "Word of God" because found in our Bible, is this: "The Word of God is not an ordinary human judgment? Was not the date, the author, and the date of these ancient writings, only a part which were catalogued, and the others rejected, a matter of indifference?"

The professor, who was reared in this country, was a student of the "Word of God" and the "Word of Inspiration," and he was taught that the Word of God was the Word of Inspiration, and that the Word of Inspiration was the Word of God.

Professor, you admit that in your criticisms that the Word of God is not the Word of Inspiration, and that the Word of Inspiration is not the Word of God.

AMERICA FOR AMERICANS

MCKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD

In 1890 William McKinley was born in Ohio in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1891 William L. Wilson was born and reared in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts

THE SILVER PROBLEM.

Commercial Gazette.
Former Anderson has two thousand bushels of wheat.

Mr. Jones has a thousand dollars worth of silver bullion.

Mr. Anderson's wheat is worth in the market $1,000.

So is Mr. Jones's silver bullion.

Mr. Jones goes to Philadelphia, takes his silver to the Mint and has it coined into two thousand nice, fine, pretty silver dollars.

When Farmer Anderson brings along his thousand dollars worth of wheat, Mr. Jones buys it, paying him $1, 000—and he has $1,000 left with which to buy the wheat of the next farmer comes along.

This is free coinage. Some people are surprised to find the farmers in the country advocating it.

We should see a good many strange things in this country if the silver prople should have their way.

A single gold standard meets the views of Secretary of Agriculture Morton as a sound currency basis. He is believed to be speaking for President CLEVELAND.

THE LEDGER stumbled headlong into an error in saying that Hon. WILLIAM BOWMAN of the State of Lewis was the present Senator from this District. He is the present able Representative from Lewis.

BETORE the Democrats secured control of Uncle Sam's Treasury and other affairs they promised wonderful things.

Among others, money would just rain into the National Treasury from somewhere—fr om

some imaginable

source—and it would not come out of the pockets of the people.

Well, the majority believed the campaign lies, and the Democrats had had charge for the rise of two years, and matters are steadily becoming no better with the speed of a locomotive.

The Treasury deficit for the first twenty days of April is $10,669,389.
The receipts for the month have been some $17,065,435 and the expenditures some $27,754,824.

The deficit for the year to date aggregates a little more than $24,000,000.

The outlook for the next month is not pleasing, for Commissioner LOCHREN will call for $12,000,000 for pension payments.

Then will come June, the last month of this fiscal year, and it is also expected to show a deficit.

The receipts from the income tax being cut at least in two by the Supreme Court's decision will help make the deficit for the year larger than expected, and then, too, the receipts from customs have not equalled expectations.

The indications, therefore, are that the deficit for the year will aggregate about $40,000,000, and it may even exceed that figure.

Oh, yes; the Democrats are making a splendid record!

morrow upon the arrival of that boat.

Don't feel well

Why?
Oh! I don't know. Worry I expect.
Worrying about what?
Well, you know the servants are a heap of trouble.

The children worry me a heap.
I am broken down.

In the morning I generally have a headache;

Along towards evening my back feels as if it would break.

Every time the baby cries I nearly jump out of my skin, I am so nervous.

Your system needs toning up.
Why not take Brown's Iron

Bitters, the best strengthening medicine made. It will give you a good appetite, make your blood rich and pure, give you strength, make life a pleasure. Not only is it yourself, but give it to the children;
it is pleasant to take. Small dose.

INCOME TAX.

The Late Decision in the Case
to Be Vacated

If Justice Jackson is Able to Go to Washington May 6.

On That Day the Supreme Court Will Listen to a Rearrangement of the Matter, & If it Had Not Been Passed Upon at All.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Justice

Jackson of the supreme court, is in Washington on May 6 the court will vacate the income tax decision handed down on March 2, and postpone the argument. Tuesday's order for a rehearing of the cases was generally understood to mean that the court would merely listen to arguments on the case, and that the requirement could be denied or set for some future day.

The court meant to say nothing of the sort. The chief justice intended to announce that on May 6, if Justice

Jackson is still on the bench, as is expected to be, the court will return to a rearrangement of the income tax cases as if they had not been passed upon at all.

Now, if a rehearing is granted, with Justice Jackson on the bench, the court can only do one of two things:

It can deny the motion or it can enterprise, and the latter action would be most forcible in order to make it clear to the landing of British marines at Corinto, which is not understood to be part of the programme; it is stated that the court will not be bound by the decision of the will of the foreign government

EMBALMING AS AN ART.

An Able and Interesting Article Upon

This Subject by J. F. Fitzhugh, Embalmer for Myatt & Coughlin.

Lecture on the art of embalming is known to the public, and yet it is one of the most important details connected with the care of the dead. When death robes one's house of a precious soul the first duties to be performed are the care of the body. He enters the room, takes charge of the remains and attends to the first minor details, such as closing of the hours and laying out the body. Then comes the important part. You are now ready for some reason why you want to keep the body for seven or more ten days. Can you do it? Well done it is of the undertaker. Well, we may say, I think so, probably I can. I will try. Such are the Embalmers. You are interested and worried over the loss of a friend or relative, and then to have a man who terms himself an Embalmer heap upon you such statements, causing you all the trouble, anxiety, and expense. Such Embalmers are incompetent. A man who is scientific in this art can preserve for any length of time the body of any person dying of any disease. It makes no difference whatever. You simply have to pay him a sum of money, and he equally as well paid as a reputable physician. Chemistry is also essential, and in fact a thorough course in at least five different subjects are necessary to make one practical Embalmer. That is why the importance of this experience is the next important feature. There are several different methods of embalming, of which I will name: Cavity, or cavity treatment, and by means of a hypodermic instrument; arterial injection, or eye process, the Barnes needle process and the mummifying method. The majority of the people do not understand just what we mean when we speak of embalming. We mean to say that the body is cut and mutilated. So imagine a body is cut and mutilated, the largest incision necessary for the most complete operation is but one inch. This is necessary in performing the arterial work. The artery is cut and the blood is allowed to run into the brachial, the axillary radial or ulnar in the wrist, carotids on either side of the neck, anterior and posterior tibial. Any of these vessels may be opened and injected. The cavity injection is a process used for temporary treatment from the eye to the rectum, or injecting the abdominal, mesenteric, sternal and lung cavities, and the intestines, and completely covering all the internal organs with a strong adhesive. So you see, in this case, all the gas and恶臭 are removed, which might form to hasten decomposition. The best and latest discovery is the needle process, of which Professor Carl L. Barnes of the University of Edinburgh is the originator. It resembles a saw, and the knife is held in the hand, so that the knife, no mutilation whatever, or no signs of the Embalmer's work remains after the operation. The body is then covered with a bandage, and the operator is through the cerebro-spinal canal. The cavity is reached by using a small needle inserted in the posterior part of the neck and through the foramen magnum in the occiput bone.

The needles introduced into the cavity by this method penetrates the cerebro-spinal cavity more directly than it would be inserted through the optic nerve, and the pressure of the knife on the spine of Willis. This method embalms a body complete, and is absolutely done without the use of a knife. The eye process is similar to the above, but need only the removal of the needles, however, it is not so safe as the needles of the eye.

The eye process is the first circle of the circulation. I trust the public will not misunderstand or enter any argument as to the mode of operation in this art, as it is one of the most difficult operations, and requires permission to the final interment of your beloved friends or relatives. Also, that Messrs. Myatt & Coughlin will at all times strive to please the masses, and render every first-class service to all their customers, especially in the hour of trouble. The public's obedient servant,

J. F. FITZHUGH.
